Author feel proud to helping such honest people in the time where fraudster are all around you. Things changes because beautiful and bright didnt take decision for themselves but mediocre did and got success.Independence day have become a holiday for us and not to remember the saga of our heroes.Earlier people were good and easy going and listen to advice of the elders and behave maturely but today they are altogether different and arrogant behave improper even when they are wrong.Sometimes not shawls and garland but just a Jasmine string given with respect is important to us , author feel the same when her hardwork was credited to some politician who was just there to get honour without lifting the finger for the hospital they build in village.Leprosy stricken state was in abject poverty as people don't get job and woman have left with no clothes on her body author take a leap and given every woman a sari for covering there dignity and feel sorry for the situation.A woman on death bed thinking about helping other with remaining money which author gave for her treatment, she passed away leaving her wish to her brother to fulfill for her sake. Through there work and dowry related thingsDifference between philanthropist people back in 20th century and now a days , earlier want no recognition now want the acknowledgement for there donation.Women's has to educated well not mere bookish but practical life experiences too and have to self dependent and have authority over her decision and stand firm on that.Jealous and self centred people are dangerous, they make negative remarks regardlessly knowing what really one feels by there remarks . She felt sorry for the diseased woman.A doctor who share anecdotes to keep class engaging to his lecture give biggest advice to his daughter a death in hospital is just another death, but a permanent loss for the family so one must be careful.A village in Kalahandi where people still believe in king and use barter system for daily use and think still ruled by east india company but say truth of nature that we don't own anything in the world.A NGO worker helped a old man who died before he died he met his son who left him to the woman home and thinking way to help him and money driven people just take away their old parents money and let them die and woman feel ashamed for his act.A guy talks about people don't know the history of festival and just there to enjoy, and then he talk about how fund raising happens in children orphanage and then he eavsdropping on women who talk about software engineers and merits and demerit so at last he speak up and come to know they are marriage brokers.A woman who work in city when there telegram was only communication available, received a death news she got scared and left for home found out that her cousin father died and not her's she felt relieved and come to know about her engagement with boy from Delhi.An old man came to Author to buy his book for her library project as she have build 4000 libraries in a state and going for inauguration of an another one , he try to influence her by telling he knows Sudha and Narayan murty without knowing that she is Sudha and she rejected him saying if he was honest she would have think of buying it but now not even for free she gonna get it..A woman was sold in red light area on rakhi and she gone through enough when Sudha say akka to tara on rakhi day, she anger and said on relationship she has to offer is between man and woman and there is no other relationship.A pessimist Friend who see negative in everything, left for Bombay after few year they met and she has complete change over on enquiry about the change important lesson learn from beggar changed her life , as he was enjoying even we he doesn't have anything and she is sad all the time and now she sponsor his grand daughter study in boarding school.Author told 2 ignorant youngsters the story of Rani Jhansi and her courage story and they listened to her talk carefully.A curious passenger next seat give Author tough time with her questions so in the end when author didn't feel well , the passenger girl just give her balm of her company she is working with and both smiled.Anecdote on uneducated girls got ill treated after marriage and some face the fate of stove burst author met the case through her gynaecologist friend whose in laws burnt her for she is carrying girl child from pregnancy so they lit her up in fire and she died when author was consoling her mother.Author and friends had get together and they changes there experience the one who is bright and beautiful now become opposite of it, and the one who is mediocre step up and become a business woman. We people are become insensitive towards our old parents as narrator mother asked her to go and pay her condolences to our neighbour as the mother of the house died but 10 days later when she visited all were very cheerful and happy and wife is angry with her mother in law as she said she tortured them . A guy who known to only well read person of village, he feel shy after getting compliment from a woman, he take her home for tea and after the admiration of his child he boast about himself when his lie was caught because woman read in same collage same year and won gold medal which he claim that he got.An old man teaches the chapter of humility of give and take, even he had nothing much to offer but his ancestors philosophy make him do so ,even if it's just a bottle of special juice they made in village. And eating and drinking Bisleri and full food.Difference between the educated Friend son who is waiting to join a software job to earn big and don't wanna settle for less, where as a child wake up 5 in the morning till 11pm and work to earn 5 rupee to buy the stuff they can't if he thinks the pay is low.Difference of teacher who lead by good and bad example same happens here once teacher take student home and treat them like family and want nothing in returnand now they exploit there resources for there benefits.Difference in people thinking as people want to treated like humans and not mere machine and children should be treated as per there age.Donations should be unanimous and show how 2 different personalities believe in donation one wants recognition for mere 10000 and one don't want for 4 lakhs rupees.A friend who never spent a money on unworthy things when came to retirement age woman lost her mind and started using money unnecessarily and man use his to do philanthropic work for society.Money changes people for different and make them arrogant , one must respect there partner because they are the one who sacrifice and stand by them in tough timesMental health deteriorating because love is Missing in relationship and torture and taunt make a person mad money can't make you happy for long time.Things are different from people to people.more One is grateful other don't feel like it author helped 3 boys with there fees and one behaved like she is family one behave like arrogant guy she is yet to meet 3rd guy to see what he is like. Her brother was the book supplier in the author office.An author novel change the thinking of the boy who loved a girl but backed up as he come to know she is suffering from leucoderma but after reading her book he changed and are getting married now she feel proud of it and the sari they gave her is precious to her.Author visit friend's house warming party in 2002 and after holy puja got over talk shifted to Gujarat earthquake 2002 and she saw insensitivity of people towards other people but believe in show off her at the wedding with useless gifts.One must respect there teacher wherever u met them because they teach us and made us who we are.We should ignore unwanted letters send for us and help who actually needed it not who try to please us to get there work done.every generation have complaint with new generation but can be solved if we have talk with them like author have with her son.Contentment is important because demand are ever going and we ruin our present with what we not have rather than what we have.Author felt the pity for woman who are sex workers and want to change living.2 different women 2 different personalities but actual difference is there thought processing one wants gain experience one doesn't care at all.Difference of rich and poor told by the fruit seller to Author. And there relationship deteriorate.Country where goddesses are preach stand at bottom 2 on respecting women but th scandanavian country norway sweden Denmark respect there woman more than anything.Few sages are true Sanyasi and rest are all the fraudster and demi god who mock and ruins life of many but true Sanyasi become leader a play a role accordingly.Negative and positive view's of the people on author column in newspaper.Idea of noble prize is to recognise the help provided to mankind by people who work selflessly.Unwed mother is a curse in the Indian family but cool in scandanavian countriesMarriage of Friends daughter who is going to US and doesn't have to gave dowry except for the tickets to US first time how time changes and thing follows.Confidence of guy few decades back to learn and understand computer and today's youth is different.Telephone and how it is abused by children in author Friends house by his daughter upset the situation in there life because they can control there needs and desires.Hypocrisy of people between relationship in the same house like what daughter did in her in-laws house is good but, id there daughter in -law did it's wrong why.Gujarat earthquake make the life of the family as they were beggars in Mumbai but now they are kind of kings of the houses in the shelter home of government. Jul 29, 2019 Kanwarpal Singh rated it really liked it Review : This novel contain mature stories anecdotes and based on feeling, hypocrisy, courtship, relationship, marriage, social evils like dowry, female infanticide, killing for dowry, generation gap , unwed mother's work, respect for elders, respect for teachers , old age home and perspective of all many different people from different walks of life, work of philanthropists, she shares anecdotes of life where her friends reached and from where they started, what they do now earlier who were nov Review : This novel contain mature stories anecdotes and based on feeling, hypocrisy, courtship, relationship, marriage, social evils like dowry, female infanticide, killing for dowry, generation gap , unwed mother's work, respect for elders, respect for teachers , old age home and perspective of all many different people from different walks of life, work of philanthropists, she shares anecdotes of life where her friends reached and from where they started, what they do now earlier who were novice were now successful business woman and some are like family, she talks about false alarm of people who want money even though they belong to well to do family and talks about awards and showoff and behaviour of people from now and then and lifestyle, how to maintain relationships and how to show up and listen to what liars have to say.Wise or otherwise summaryA student who want to study got sponsored when a woman read his story in newspaper she send him money for the class when second time she send he returned 300 ₹ saying that 2 months he didn't visit bellary because of holidays and strike in college, that impressed the woman more than in poverty he didn't let go of his honesty.A woman was sent to village for site checking.
