Gallery Coins in Guns of Glory Guns of Glory Guardians Guardians The guards can be found in the new building - the guardroom, which is located on your estate next to the bank. The building becomes available when your castle reaches level 10. You can increase the level of guards to increase the bonuses they give. Increase Gardening Skills to gain additional bonuses. Journeyman You can recruit guards for the first time for free, and you can also recruit guards for free every 8 hours. If you want to set the guard faster, you will need to pay two hundred gold coins. Handyman You can recruit free guards for the first time, and you can recruit guards for free every day. If you want to set the guard faster, you will need to pay a thousand gold coins. Master The cost of a set is 30 set-ups with a single set and 270 set-ups for 10 sets. This option is available only to players who have already made purchases in the game. The Guard Hall is a new building where you can assign guardians to positions to activate their bonuses. In the guardroom, you will find 8 posts that are available to you and your guardians at certain levels of the castle. Guns of glory Creature and Its Pumping You can animate the creature when your airship reaches level 10. Click on the lab on your estate and select whether your creature is female or male. You can choose the gender of your being only once. Once you have made a choice, you can no longer change it! After the revival of the creature, you will become available catacombs. In the catacombs, you will be able to fight with monsters and get items. Like the lord, the creature also has uniforms, talents, and a skill system. If you wish, you can also rename your being. Rewards For Points You can get 8 different sets of excellent rewards in the creature arena, depending on the number of points received during the season. Reach the points to pick up rewards. These rewards change every season, which means you can only receive rewards once a season. A rank award is awarded depending on your world rank among all the players of the game. Among the awards for the rank, you can find awards such as 10,000 gold coins for the best creature. Guns of glory The Airship and Its Awards Your airship is a destructive weapon of unprecedented power! No man-made weapon can destroy it! Improving the Airship Enhances the effectiveness of your troops in battle, your camping limit and your collection premiums. All awards can be divided into aggressor and defender premiums. You can improve the aggressor premium by adding elements of the aggressor, and the defender premium by adding elements of the defender. Increasing the Level of the Airship You can gain experience of the airship by killing beasts or enemy troops or collecting resources. Even if your airship does not participate in your campaign against scamps, enemies or resources, you will still get the experience of the airship. Elements of the Aggressor & the Defender You can get the elements of the aggressor, killing scamps and enemy troops, and the elements of the defender - collecting resources and defending against the attacks of enemy troops. Purpose of Airship Awards Airship awards can be assigned in the tab ASSIGN PREMIUM. Here you can assign awards in the tabs of attack, defense, collection, and beast, depending on the purpose of your hike. Guns of Glory Refugelf your hospitals are full, a certain percentage of your dead troops will go to the shelter. You can increase this percentage by raising your VIP level or by receiving a subscription. When there are mortally wounded troops in the shelter, the holy water necessary to breathe life into them will be collected automatically. Get daily rewards and collect resources to get more holy water when you have troops in your shelter. But be careful! Only a certain amount of holy water can accumulate in the shelter. You can only have a certain amount of holy water in a certain period of time, regardless of whether you collected it automatically or received it. Guns of Glory Recruitment Resonance Currently, the game has 6 different sets of equipment, giving a bonus from the set with the resonance. Set Resonance gives you three different bonuses that become available to you if you are wearing 2, 4, and 6 pieces of equipment from the same set. To see if the resonance bonus works, go to the tab with a detailed description of the equipment in your profile. To view all the sets and all the bonus sets with resonance available in the game, go to the smithy and click on the equipment drawing. The only equipment that has a set resonance in the description is included in the set, which gives the set bonus with resonance. The gain boost resonance bonus is activated only when you have assembled the entire set and when all units of equipment from this set are enhanced. The bonus gain resonance only affects the resonance bonus but does not affect the equipment bonus. You can see the gain bonus gains currently available to you, as well as how to gain access to the next resonance level by going to the "Reinforce" section in the forge. How to Build a Castle? Castle The castle is the most important building in your estate, its heart. Each time you upgrade the castle, you get the opportunity to upgrade other buildings in your city. Raising the castle also increases your troop limit and overall strength. You can find out more about the number of resources produced in your estate, as well as production amplifiers in your castle in the Data estates section. You can find out more about the amplifiers you have in the castle in the Mansions section. Infirmary The infirmary is designed to treat your troops wounded in battle. The treatment of wounded troops takes half the time and costs two times cheaper than training the same number of new troops. So the higher your limit of injured in the infirmary, the better for you and your estate. Wall The wall protects your estate when attacking the enemy. If you are attacked and you are defeated, your estate will light up. As your estate burns, the defense of the walls decreases. You can put out the fire immediately by paying for this gold, or you can wait - the fire will automatically go out in thirty minutes. Embassy If you have an embassy, you can receive acceleration timers and reinforcements from your allies. Improve the embassy and increase the number of timers that your allies can help you speed up, increase the time of acceleration of timers and increase the number of reinforcement troops that you can take on the estate. Your embassy can accept only one reinforcement unit from each member of your alliance. Upon reaching the reinforcements limit, you can no longer receive reinforcements. Reinforcement troops are a great way to protect the weaker members of the alliance. Guns of Glory Troops and Their Attack Your army consists of four types of troops: infantry, cavalry, ranged soldiers and artillery. These types of troops can be trained in barracks, stables, on the range, and in the artillery factory, respectively. Each of these types of troops has two types of troops. Each type of troops has its own special characteristics and strengths. Infantry: This is your infantry. The infantry is divided into pike-men and musketeers. The musketeers increased defense against light cavalry. Do pike-men increased defense from the shooters. Possessing high levels of health and defense, both types of infantry serve as human shields for other types of troops. Rely on the infantry when creating an army. Cavalry: is your cavalry troops. Heavy cavalry has increased protection in the battle with pike-men. Light cavalry has increased attack rates in a battle with arrows. Cavalry has the highest speed in the campaign. The ranged troops: crazy enemy from afar. They are divided into shooters and grenadiers. Arrows have increased attack rates in battle with cavalry and artillery. Grenadiers have increased attack rates in combat with musketeers. Ranged troops can also attack troops behind enemy infantry. Artillery is your war machine. Artillery consists of guns and mortars. Guns help protect your troops by taking trap attacks. Mortars do extra damage to enemy traps. Because of its size, artillery is slow, but it has the ability to transfer the largest amount of resources. How to Change the Kingdom in Guns of Glory? There are 5 types of teleport s in the game: Teleport recruit: using it, you can transfer your estate to another kingdom of your choice. This teleport is available only to those who have been in the game for no more than 5 days and whose fortress level is 3 or lower. Random teleport: moves your estate to random coordinates on a kingdom map. Teleport Alliance: moves your estate closer to the estate of the head of the alliance. Advanced teleport: transfers the estate to your chosen coordinates on the map of the kingdom. To use advanced telephoning, click on the Teleport button. Teleport fortress: moves your estate closer to the fortress of your alliance. Available in the alliance market. How to Create An Alliance? How to Join the Alliance? Click on the Alliance button at the bottom of the screen. In the window that opens, you can join an alliance or create it. If your castle has not yet reached level 6, you can create an alliance by paying for it with 200 gold. If your castle is 6 or higher, you can create an alliance for free. The language of the alliance is automatically determined by the language of the game of the head of the alliance, but you can change the language of the alliance at any time. If you decide to create an alliance, remember that other lords decide whether they want to join your alliance by looking at its name and motto. How to Change the Alliance? How to Get Out of the Alliance? How to Dissolve the Alliance? At the same time, you can only be in one alliance. To join another alliance, click on the invitation that may appear on your screen, or click on the Alliance button at the bottom of the screen to view a list of available alliances. You can change the alliance at any time, but first, you need to leave the alliance in which you are a member. To do this, click on the Alliance button at the bottom of the screen, then go to Management, and click on Lock. Only the head of the alliance can dissolve the alliance. If the head of the alliance wants to leave the alliance or change the alliance but does not want to dismiss the current alliance. He must transfer the post of the head of the alliance to another member of the alliance before leaving the alliance. To dissolve the alliance, click on the Alliance button at the bottom of the screen, then go to Management, and click on Discall. How Can I Change my Rank in the Alliance? Only the head of the alliance or members of the alliance, whose rank is 2 or more rank higher than yours, can change your rank in the alliance. If your rank above your ally is 2 ranks or more, you can increase or degrade your ally. By clicking on the Alliance button at the bottom of the screen, you can: Click on Participants to see the ranks of the members of your alliance. Click on Management in the menu PASSITIES to see what authority each title of an alliance gives. What is Fame in Gun of Glory? Banners of glory are needed to raise the level of the glory of certain buildings in your estate. To use the banners of glory, click on the Lay of glory button on the building you want, and then click on the Improve button. Banners of Glory can be obtained: By collecting resources on the kingdom map. In the battle for the gate to the dungeon, defending ourselves from the red guards. Some playsets. Ways to get the glory of glory may change over time. The number of banners of glory required to raise the level of glory depends on the current level of the building.
